164.—Where another Member State has designated an event as being of major importance to society in that Member State and the European Commission has communicated the measures taken by that Member State in accordance with Article 3j.2 of the Council Directive, no broadcaster under the jurisdiction of the State who acquires exclusive rights to the designated event shall exercise the exclusive rights in such a way that a substantial portion of the public in that Member State is deprived of the possibility of following the events in accordance with the measures taken.

Civil remedies.

165.—(1) Where it is alleged by a broadcaster (the "aggrieved broadcaster") that any activity or conduct prohibited by section 163 or 164 is being, has been or is about to be carried on by one or more other broadcasters (the "other broadcaster"), the aggrieved broadcaster shall be entitled to apply to the High Court for the following remedies against the other broadcaster:

(a) an order restraining the other broadcaster from carrying on or attempting to carry on the activity or conduct prohibited by section 163 or 164;

(b) a declaration that the contract under which the other broadcaster received exclusive rights to the designated event is void;

(c) damages from the other broadcaster;

(d) a direction that the right to provide television coverage of the event shall be offered to the aggrieved broadcaster at reasonable market rates.

(2) An application to the High Court for an order referred to in subsection (1) shall be by motion and the court, when considering the matter, may make such interim or interlocutory order as it considers appropriate.

166.—(1) For the purpose of section 163(1), if broadcasters are unable to agree on what constitutes reasonable market rates with respect to television coverage of an event, either of the broadcasters may apply to the High Court in a summary manner for an order determining reasonable market rates for an event.

Reasonable market rates.

(2) An order under subsection (1) may contain such consequential or supplementary provisions as the High Court considers appropriate.

167.—(1) Where an event has been designated, and if within 56 days, or such other lesser or greater period which the Minister directs, before the event or a part of it takes place the event organiser has not made an agreement or arrangement with a qualifying broadcaster to enable it to provide coverage on free television services in the State of the event or part of it, as determined under section 161(1)(b) in the designation order which designated the event—

Qualifying broadcaster may apply to High Court to obtain rights from event organiser to provide coverage of designated event on free television services in State, etc.

(a) subject to subsection (3), a qualifying broadcaster may apply to the High Court in a summary manner for an order directing the event organiser to give rights to the qualifying broadcaster to provide such coverage and upon such terms as are fixed by the High Court, including the fixing of reasonable market rates, in respect of the acquisition of the rights, or

(b) within that period a qualifying broadcaster has not so applied, the event organiser may apply to the High Court in a summary manner to request the High Court to invite qualifying broadcasters to make such an application.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the High Court may, on application to it under subsection (1) by a qualifying broadcaster, direct the event organiser, upon such terms as to the Court appears just and proper, to give to the qualifying broadcaster rights to provide coverage of the designated event or part of it on free television services, as determined under section 161(1)(b) in the designation order which designated the event, notwithstanding that all of the terms for the acquisition of the rights to provide coverage under subsection (1), have not yet been fixed by it, including the fixing of reasonable market rates.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply where an event organiser decides, prior to the making of an application under subsection (1), not to allow coverage of an event or a part of it, as determined under section 161(1)(b) in the designation order designating the event, on any television service provided by a broadcaster. Where an event organiser has so decided, the event organiser must notify, as soon as possible, the Minister.

(4) The High Court in fixing the terms under subsection (1) may, in arriving at a computation of reasonable market rates, to be paid by a qualifying broadcaster for the acquisition of the rights under that subsection, refer the computation of the rates to an arbitrator appointed by the High Court. The arbitrator shall report to the Court and the parties, by way of issuing an award, setting out the amount that he or she decides are reasonable market rates.

(5) An arbitration under subsection (4) shall be conducted in accordance with such procedures as are determined by the Court referring the computation of the rates to the arbitrator. The Court may, in determining such procedures, give such directions as it considers just and proper for the processing of the arbitration, including fixing the period within which the award of the arbitrator is to be issued.

(6) Where in an application under subsection (1)—

(a) the High Court has fixed the reasonable market rates, or an arbitrator has issued an award under subsection (4), and prior to the High Court making a final order in respect of the application, or 5

(b) in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2), the High Court indicates that it will fix the reasonable market rates for coverage of the event after the event has taken place, and prior to the event taking place, 10

the qualifying broadcaster may withdraw the application. The High Court may in these circumstances, having regard to the intention of the broadcaster making the application, award such costs to such party or parties to the application as it considers appropriate. 15

(7) The High Court may, either of its own motion or on application to it by an arbitrator appointed under subsection (4), give, from time to time, such directions in connection with the arbitration as it considers just and proper.

(8) Where more than one qualifying broadcaster applies under subsection (1) for rights to provide coverage of a designated event or part of it and the High Court has fixed under this section the terms upon which a qualifying broadcaster may obtain the rights, the event organiser may choose to which qualifying broadcaster it gives the rights. 20 25

(9) Where there is an existing contract in respect of an event or part of it between the event organiser and another broadcaster, who is not a qualifying broadcaster, the High Court in an application to it under subsection (1) shall decide to whom and in which proportions monies in respect of the reasonable market rates, fixed under this section in respect of the acquisition of rights to the event or part of it, should be paid. 30

(10) The High Court may, if it considers it necessary, for the purposes of exercising its powers under this section, adjust an existing agreement or arrangement, in respect of rights to a designated event or a part of it, between the event organiser and a broadcaster, who is not a qualifying broadcaster. 35

(11) Without prejudice to subsection (2), when considering any matter under this section, the High Court may make such interim or interlocutory order as it considers appropriate. 40

Arbitration in respect of reasonable market rates where event organiser is willing to sell broadcasting rights to designated event to qualifying broadcaster.

168.—(1) Where an event organiser is willing to sell rights enabling a qualifying broadcaster to provide coverage on free television services in the State of a designated event or a part of it, as determined under section 161(1)(b) in the designation order which designated the event, but the qualifying broadcaster and the event organiser have not agreed the amount to be paid in respect of the acquisition of the rights, the following provisions of this section apply. 45

(2) The qualifying broadcaster or the event organiser may request the other to agree to the appointment of an arbitrator for the purposes of fixing reasonable market rates for the acquisition of the 50

AN BILLE CRAOLACHAIN 2008
BROADCASTING BILL 2008

EXPLANATORY AND FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

[This Memorandum is not part of the Act and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.]

Purpose of Bill

The Bill seeks to revise the law relating to broadcasting services and content generally. It repeals all existing broadcasting content legislation. The Bill seeks to establish a broadcasting content regulator to be known as the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland (BAI). The BAI will perform the existing functions of the Broadcasting Commission of Ireland and the Broadcasting Complaints Commission, as well as undertaking new functions, particularly in respect of the oversight of public funding to public service broadcasters. The Bill also revises the statutory basis for the television licence.

Financial implications

The Bill proposes that the BAI will be funded primarily by way of a levy on the broadcasting sector. This will result in a recurring saving to the Exchequer.

Staffing implications

The BAI will require significant additional staffing resources to administer its new functions as provided for under the Bill.

Provisions of Bill

There are 13 Parts in the Bill which contain a total of 181 sections and one Schedule to the Bill.

PART 1

PRELIMINARY AND GENERAL MATTERS

Section 1, 3 and 4 are standard provisions.

Section 2 provides definitions for a number of terms used throughout the general scheme. In particular the head provides for the definition of commercial, community and public service broadcasters.

PART 2

BROADCASTING AUTHORITY OF IRELAND

Sections 5, 6 and 7 provide for the establishment of the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland and its 2 statutory committees — the Contract Awards Committee and the Compliance Committee. They also provide that the BAI and each of its statutory committees shall operate under the seal of the BAI.

Section 8 sets out the procedures for appointment of the membership of the BAI and its 2 statutory committees. The section provides that 5 members of the BAI shall be appointed by Government on the nomination of the Minister and that 4 members of the BAI shall be appointed by Government on the nomination of the Minister, the Minister having regard to the advice of the Joint Oireachtas Committee with responsibility for broadcasting matters. Section 8 also provides that half of the membership of each of the two statutory committees shall be appointed by Government on the nomination of the Minister and the remaining membership shall be appointed by the BAI from the membership of the BAI and its staff.

Section 9 sets down the requisite experience required of persons to be appointed as board members of the BAI and its 2 statutory committees; the period of appointment and the necessary processes to effect a resignation from a board.

Section 10 provides for the setting of the terms and conditions of membership of the BAI and its 2 statutory committees, and provides for certain procedures in relation to removal from membership of the BAI and its 2 statutory committees.

Section 11 provides for the appointment by Government on the nomination of the Minister of the chairpersons of the BAI and its 2 statutory committees.

Section 12 provides for the suspension or exclusion from membership of the BAI and its statutory committees in certain specified circumstances.

Section 13 sets a quorum and outlines procedures in relation to meetings of the BAI and its 2 statutory committees.

Section 14 provides for the position of chief executive officer of the BAI.

Section 15 provides that the BAI may, subject to the consent of the Minister and the Minister for Finance, appoint staff, and provides that the existing staff of the Broadcasting Commission of Ireland would transfer to the BAI without adversely impacting on their existing pay and conditions.

Section 16 provides for the establishment of a superannuation scheme for the staff of the BAI. The head also provides that the pension entitlements of existing staff should not be adversely impacted by the transition from the Broadcasting Commission of Ireland to BAI.

Section 17 empowers the BAI to establish advisory committees to advise and assist it and its statutory committees in the performance of their respective functions.

Section 18 empowers the BAI to appoint consultants and advisers to advise and assist it and its statutory committees in the performance of their respective functions.

Section 19 provides that the chief executive officer of the BAI must attend before the Committee of Public Accounts in respect of the expenditure of the BAI.
